

JIM L AWTREY

After playing on the golf team and graduating from the University of Oklahoma in 1966 he would join and remain a part of the golf industry for the next 43 years.

Jim retired as CEO of the Professional Golfers Association of America in 2005 after 18 years of serving at the helm of the worlds largest working sports organization. During Jim's tenure the PGA Championship and Ryder Cup became two of the world's premier golf events.

He served as a member of the following:

- The First Tee, Oversight Committee
- World Golf Foundation, Past Board of Directors
- National Golf Foundation, Past Advisory Board Member
- Golf 20/20, Executive Board

He currently serves as a member of the following:

- Landmark Land Company Board of Directors
- Digital Media Arts College Board of Directors
- Trustee Fellow Georgetown College Lexington Kentucky
- Arnold Palmer Children's Hospital National Advisory Council
- Clearview Golf Foundation Board Member